Hello, I'm Julius Miguel, an IT student with a passion for exploring the digital realm.

      When I'm not immersed in the world of coding and technology, you can find me embracing an active lifestyle.

      Cycling, volleyball, swimming, and badminton are my go-to sports,

      providing the perfect balance to my tech-centric pursuits.
Beyond sports, I find joy in expressing myself through dance,
and I'm not one to shy away from the kitchen cooking up a storm
is one of my favorite ways to unwind.

      Let's chat tech, share sports stories, or exchange cooking tips!

  <h2>Badminton </h2>
  Hello fellow shuttlecock enthusiasts! I'm Julius Miguel, your badminton enthusiast ready to conquer the court.

Badminton isn't just a sport for me; it's a symphony of
smashes, drops,
and swift movements that create the rhythm of competition.
